The bill has no direct fiscal effect on the state or political subdivisions. The bill permits a person, who is eligible for both a "Purple Heart" license plate and a license plate imprinted with the international symbol of access indicating that the person is disabled, to apply for a single plate that displays both symbols. Neither the demand for special license plates nor the cost of their production and distribution will be affected.

The Bureau of Motor Vehicles (BMV) currently produces special license plates via a digital print-on-demand process. The total cost to produce a pair of these plates is $4.10. Under current law, unchanged by the bill, there is no required contribution or additional fee for the "Purple Heart" plate.
