The bill's designation of August 31 as "Ohio Overdose Awareness Day" will have no direct fiscal effect on the state or local political subdivisions. The bill also requires that on August 31, a state flag displayed at a state building or public institution be flown at half-staff from sunrise until sunset. If there were no employees on staff at these times or if a volunteer was unavailable, it is possible that an entity could realize a negligible increase in costs to ensure someone raised or lowered the flag by the specified times.
