Jacquelyn Schroeder, Senior Budget Analyst

The bill should not have a direct fiscal impact on the state or local political subdivisions. The bill specifies that the database of individuals registered, and personal information of registered individuals contained within the database, for the Vax-A-Million campaign is confidential and is not a public record under Ohio's Public Records Law. It is possible that there may be some costs to local courts if any violations of the Ohio Public Records Law occur. However, violations, if any do occur, would likely be infrequent. Thus, there should be no discernible ongoing costs for courts to adjudicate violations or for the state to defend their conduct or possibly make payments to a plaintiff.
