person or persons must be identified by the respective classification at the district or school, such as student, teacher, or nonteaching employee, and prohibits the person or persons from being identified by name.

The bill states that this requirement no longer applies after the date that is two years following the submission of the report required under the bill's provisions (see "Report" below).¹

Report

The bill requires the Department of Education to prepare a report of the information required to be collected under the bill's provisions for the first two school years following the bill's effective date. The report must be submitted by October 1 that follows the final day of the second school year to the President and Minority Leader of the Senate, the Speaker and Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, and the chairpersons and ranking minority members of Senate and House Education Committees.²
