The legal descriptions of all real estate being conveyed or to which an easement is being granted are in the bill. The Department of Administrative Services may correct or modify the legal descriptions as necessary to facilitate recordation of the deeds or easements.¹

The conveyances include improvements and chattels situated on the real estate,² and are subject to all easements, covenants, conditions, and restrictions of record; all legal highways and public rights-of-way; zoning, building, and other laws, ordinances, restrictions, and regulations; and real estate taxes and assessments not yet due and payable.³ And, the real estate must be conveyed in "as-is, where-is, with all faults" condition. The deeds to convey the real estate may contain restrictions, exceptions, reservations, reversionary interests, and other terms and conditions the Director of Administrative Services or the agency or university with jurisdiction over the property determines to be in the best interest of the state.⁴ Finally, the bill allows the state or the agency or university with jurisdiction over the property, after the conveyance, to release any restrictions, exceptions, reservations, reversionary interests, or other terms and conditions contained in the deed without the necessity of further legislation.⁵

To make a conveyance under the bill, the Auditor of State, with the assistance of the Attorney General, prepares each deed. Deeds are executed by the Governor in the name of the state, countersigned by the Secretary of State, sealed with the Great Seal of the State, presented in the Office of the Auditor of State for recording, and delivered to the grantee, who must present the deed for recording at the applicable office of the county recorder. The authorization for all land conveyances and grants of perpetual easements in the bill expires three years after the bill's effective date.

Adjutant General's Department property to Clark County (Section 1)

The Director of Administrative Services and the Board of County Commissioners of Clark County, Ohio, must execute a real estate purchase agreement that sets forth the terms and conditions of the conveyance. If the Board does not complete the purchase, the Director of Administrative Services may use a method of sale considered reasonable by the Adjutant General's Department to convey the real estate to an alternate grantee. The Board or alternate grantee must pay all costs associated with the purchase, closing, and conveyance, including surveys, title evidence, title insurance, transfer costs and fees, recording costs and fees, taxes, and any other fees, assessments, and costs that may be imposed.

² This is not specified for the conveyances under Sections 4, 10, and 11 of the bill, and Sections 13, 15, and 21 only include improvements and not chattels.

³ This is not specified for the conveyances under Sections 10 and 11 of the bill, and Section 4 does not include public rights-of-way.

⁴ This is not specified for the conveyances under Sections 10 and 11 of the bill, and Section 4 does not include the "as-is..." condition.

⁵ These items are not specified for the conveyances under Sections 4, 10, and 11 of the bill.

The real estate must be sold as an entire tract and not in parcels. The net proceeds of the sale must be deposited into the state treasury to the credit of the Armory Improvements Fund as required under Ohio law.⁶

Bowling Green State University property to Mucci Farms, Ltd. (Section 2)

The Director of Administrative Services must offer the real estate to Mucci Farms, Ltd. through a real estate purchase agreement. Before the deed to convey the property is executed, an existing interim lease between the Department of Administrative Services and Mucci Farms, Ltd. may govern possession of the real estate. Bowling Green State University (BGSU) and Mucci Farms, Ltd. must pay all costs associated with the purchase, closing, and conveyance as set forth in the real estate purchase agreement. If Mucci Farms, Ltd. does not complete the purchase, the Director of Administrative Services may use a method of sale considered reasonable by BGSU to convey the real estate to an alternate grantee. BGSU must pay all advertising costs, additional fees, and other costs incident to the sale of the real estate to an alternate grantee.

The real estate may be sold as an entire tract or in separate or multiple parcels. The net proceeds of the sale must be paid to BGSU, deposited in an appropriate university account, and used by BGSU for debt retirement only.

Bowling Green State University property to Wooster Street Apartments, LLC (Section 3)

The Director of Administrative Services must offer the real estate to Wooster Street Apartments, LLC (Wooster) through a real estate purchase agreement. Wooster must pay all costs associated with the purchase, closing, and conveyance of the real estate. If Wooster does not complete the purchase, the Director of Administrative Services may use a method of sale considered reasonable by BGSU to convey the real estate to an alternate grantee. BGSU must pay all advertising costs, additional fees, and other costs incident to the sale of the real estate to an alternate grantee.

The real estate must be sold as an entire tract and not in parcels. The net proceeds of the sale must be paid to BGSU, deposited in an appropriate university account, and used by BGSU for debt retirement only.

⁶ R.C. 5911.10, not in the bill.

Environmental Protection Agency property to Oak Openings Region Conservancy, Inc. (Section 4)

The property must be conveyed to Oak Openings Region Conservancy, Inc. (Oak Openings) in accordance with and subject to the terms of the July 23, 2012, Consent Order entered in the case of *State of Ohio, ex. rel. Michael DeWine, Attorney General of Ohio v. Kings Crossing North LLC, et al.*⁷ The deed to the real estate must contain any restrictions, covenants, terms, and conditions required by the Consent Order and as otherwise determined by the Director of Administrative Services and the Director of Environmental Protection to be in the best interest of the state, including holding Oak Openings responsible for all ongoing maintenance of the real estate as well as the cost and labor of upkeep of the fence as required in the Consent Order. Oak Openings must pay all closing costs including the costs of the conveyance and the recording costs of the deed. Before the deed is executed, possession of the real estate remains with the Department of Administrative Services on behalf of the Environmental Protection Agency.

Department of Developmental Disabilities property to Gallia County (Section 5)

The Director of Administrative Services must offer the real estate to the Board of County Commissioners of Gallia County, Ohio, or another grantee, through a real estate purchase agreement. The Board or other grantee must pay all costs associated with the purchase, closing, and conveyance of the real estate. If the Board does not complete the purchase, the Director of Administrative Services may use a method of sale considered reasonable by the Department of Developmental Disabilities (DODD) to convey the real estate to an alternate grantee. The DODD must pay all advertising costs, additional fees, and other costs incident to the sale of the real estate to an alternate grantee.

The real estate must be sold as an entire tract and not in parcels. The net proceeds of the sale must be deposited into the state treasury to the credit of the Mental Health Facilities Improvement Fund (Fund 7033) or another fund designated by the Director of Budget and Management.

The bill specifies that the intent of the conveyance is for the grantee to use the real estate for mental health and addiction treatment. The deed must contain a restriction stating that if the real estate is not being used for those purposes, the real estate reverts to the state at the discretion of the Director of Administrative Services and the DODD, at the purchase price of the real estate.

⁷ Case No. G-4801-CI-200904585-000 (Ct. of Common Pleas, Lucas County, Ohio).

Department of Rehabilitation and Correction property to grantees (Section 6)

The Director of Administrative Services must conduct a sale of the Department of Rehabilitation and Correction (DRC) real estate in Mahoning County by sealed bid auction.

The real estate must be sold to the highest bidder at a price acceptable to the Director of Administrative Services and the Director Rehabilitation and Correction. The Director of Administrative Services must advertise the sealed bid auction by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in Mahoning County, once a week for three consecutive weeks before the date on which the sealed bids are to be opened. The Director must notify the successful bidder in writing, and may reject any or all bids. The purchaser must pay a deposit of 10% of the purchase price to the Director not later than five business days after receiving a notice that the purchaser's bid has been accepted, and must enter into a real estate purchase agreement in the form prescribed by the Department of Administrative Services. The purchaser must pay the balance of the purchase price at closing, which must occur not later than 60 days after execution of the purchase agreement. Payment must be made in cash or by certified bank check payable to the Treasurer of State. A purchaser who does not satisfy the conditions of the sale must forfeit the 10% deposit as liquidated damages. If a purchaser fails to complete the purchase, the Director may accept the next highest bid subject to the same conditions. If the Director rejects all bids, the Director may repeat the sealed bid auction or may use an alternative sale process considered acceptable by DRC.

DRC must pay all advertising costs incident to the sale of the real estate, and the purchaser must pay all other costs associated with the purchase, closing, and conveyance of the real estate. The property must be sold as an entire tract and not in parcels. The net proceeds of the sale must be deposited into the state treasury to the credit of the Adult and Juvenile Correctional Facilities Bond Retirement Fund and used for debt retirement only.⁸

Department of Rehabilitation and Correction property to Ohio Power Company (Section 7)

The Director of Administrative Services must offer the real estate to the Ohio Power Company through a real estate purchase agreement. If the Ohio Power Company does not complete the purchase, the Director of Administrative Services may use a method of sale considered reasonable by DRC to convey the real estate to an alternate grantee. The Ohio Power Company or alternate grantee must pay all costs associated with the purchase, closing, and conveyance of the real estate.

The real estate must be sold as an entire tract and not in parcels. The net proceeds of the sale must be deposited into the state treasury to the credit of the Adult and Juvenile Correctional Facilities Bond Retirement Fund and used for debt retirement only.

Department of Rehabilitation and Correction easement to party (Section 8)

The bill requires the Director of Administrative Services with the Director of Rehabilitation and Correction to enter into an environmental covenant easement with an appropriate party to protect a 100-foot corridor on the western banks of the Big Darby Creek on the Pickaway County Orient Prison site. The easement must not preclude future outdoor recreational activities including fishing, canoeing, kayaking, or hiking.

The Director of Administrative Services, with the assistance of the Attorney General, must prepare the environmental covenant easement document. The easement must be executed by the Director of Administrative Services in the name of the state, presented in the Office of the Auditor of State for recording, and delivered to the party. The party must present the easement for recording in the Office of the Pickaway County Recorder. The party must pay the recording costs and fees.

Kent State University property to grantee (Section 9)

The real estate must be sold by sealed bid auction or public auction to the highest bidder at a price acceptable to the Director of Administrative Services and Kent State University (KSU). The Director must advertise the sealed bid auction or public auction by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in Columbiana County once a week for three consecutive weeks before the date on which the sealed bids are to be opened or the auction takes place. The Director must notify the successful bidder in writing, and may reject any or all bids. The purchaser must pay a deposit of 10% of the purchase price to the Director not later than five business days after receiving a notice that the purchaser's proposal or bid has been accepted, and must enter into a real estate purchase agreement in the form prescribed by the Department of Administrative Services. The purchaser must pay the balance of the purchase price at closing. Payment must be made by certified check payable to the Treasurer of State. A purchaser who does not satisfy the conditions of the sale must forfeit the 10% deposit as liquidated damages. If a purchaser fails to complete the purchase, the Director may accept the next highest bid subject to the same conditions. If the Director rejects all proposals or bids, the Director may repeat the sealed bid auction or public auction, or may use an alternative sale process considered acceptable by KSU. The purchaser must pay all costs associated with the purchase, closing, and conveyance, except KSU is responsible for the costs attributed to the marketing of a secondary sale.

The deeds conveying the property must contain restrictions prohibiting the purchaser from occupying, using, developing, or selling the real estate if the occupation, use, development, or sale will interfere with the quiet enjoyment of neighboring state-owned land. The real estate must be sold as an entire tract and not in parcels. The net proceeds of the sale must be paid to KSU, deposited in the appropriate university accounts, and used by KSU for debt retirement only.

Ohio Facilities Construction Commission property to school districts (Sections 10 and 11)

The bill specifies that the Ohio Facilities Construction Commission (OFCC) real estate in Clinton County (Section 10) was originally conveyed to the state as collateral for school construction facility bonds and that the intent was for the state to convey title to the East Clinton Local School District upon complete of the construction project, which the bill does. The bill also authorizes the conveyance of real estate in Licking County (Section 11) to the Board of Education of Northridge Local School District. For both conveyances, the real estate must be conveyed as an entire tract and not in parcels, and each board must pay all costs associated with the purchase and conveyance including recordation costs. The net proceeds of both conveyances must be deposited into the state treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund.

Ohio History Connection easement to city of Piqua (Section 12)

The bill authorizes the Director of Administrative Services to execute a perpetual easement granting to the city of Piqua a perpetual water line easement in Miami County. The perpetual easement must state the obligations and duties of Piqua with regard to the perpetual easement and must require Piqua to assume perpetual responsibility for operating, maintaining, repairing, reconstructing, and replacing an existing water supply line on the real estate.

The Ohio State University property to Columbus Metropolitan Library (Section 13)

The bill authorizes the conveyance of real estate in Franklin County to the Board of Trustees of the Columbus Metropolitan Library through a real estate purchase agreement. Each tract must be conveyed in its entirety and may not be conveyed as a portion of any tract. The Ohio State University (OSU) and the Board must pay the costs of the purchase, closing, and conveyance as required under the real estate purchase agreement. The net proceeds from the sale must be deposited into university accounts for purposes to be determined by OSU's Board of Trustees.

The Ohio State University property to GZD Investments LLC (Section 14)

The bill authorizes the conveyance of real estate in Franklin County to GZD Investments LLC (GZD) through a real estate purchase agreement. If GZD does not complete the purchase, the Director of Administrative Services may use a method of sale considered reasonable by OSU's Board of Trustees to convey the real estate to an alternate grantee. The real estate may be conveyed as an entire tract or as multiple parcels. OSU and GZD or the alternate grantee must pay the costs of the purchase, closing, and conveyance as set forth in a real estate purchase agreement. The net proceeds from the sale must be deposited into university accounts for purposes to be determined by OSU's Board of Trustees.

The Ohio State University property to Lennox Station Holdings LLC (Section 15)

The bill authorizes the conveyance of real estate in Franklin County to Lennox Station Holdings LLC through a real estate purchase agreement. If Lennox does not complete the purchase, the Director of Administrative Services may use a method of sale deemed reasonable by OSU's Board of Trustees to convey the real estate to an alternate grantee. The real estate must be sold as an entire tract and not in parcels. OSU and Lennox or the alternate grantee must pay the costs of the purchase, closing, and conveyance as set forth in a real estate purchase agreement, except OSU must pay all advertising costs, additional fees, and other costs incident to the subsequent sale of the real estate to an alternate grantee. The net proceeds from the sale must be deposited into university accounts and used by OSU's Board of Trustees for debt retirement only.

The Ohio State University property to Carnegie Management and Development Corporation (Section 16)

The bill authorizes the conveyance of real estate in Franklin County to Carnegie Management and Development Corporation through a real estate purchase agreement. If Carnegie does not complete the purchase, the Director of Administrative Services may use a method of sale considered reasonable by OSU's Board of Trustees to convey the real estate to an alternate grantee. The real estate may be conveyed as an entire tract or in multiple parcels. OSU and Carnegie or the alternate grantee must pay the costs of the purchase, closing, and conveyance as set forth in a real estate purchase agreement. The net proceeds from the sale must be deposited into university accounts for purposes to be determined by OSU's Board of Trustees.

The Ohio State University easement to the city of Columbus (Section 17)

The bill authorizes the Director of Administrative Services to execute an easement granting the city of Columbus a perpetual easement for sanitary sewer purposes in Franklin County. The perpetual easement must state the obligations and duties of Columbus with regard to the perpetual easement and must require Columbus to assume perpetual responsibility for constructing, operating, maintaining, repairing, reconstructing, and replacing a sanitary sewer pipeline that will be located on the real estate.

Ohio University property to a purchaser (Section 18)

The Director of Administrative Services may sell the real estate by sealed bid auction or public auction to the highest bidder at a price acceptable to the Director of Administrative Services and Ohio University (OU). The Director must advertise the sealed bid auction or public auction by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in Athens County once a week for three consecutive weeks before the date on which the sealed bids are to be opened or the auction takes place. The Director must notify the successful bidder in writing, and may reject any or all bids. The purchaser must pay a deposit of 10% of the purchase price to the Director not later than five business days after receiving a notice that the purchaser's proposal or bid has been accepted, and must enter into a real estate purchase agreement in the form prescribed by the Department of Administrative Services. The purchaser must pay the balance of the purchase price at closing. Payment must be made in cash or by certified check payable to the Treasurer of State. A purchaser who does not satisfy the conditions of the sale must forfeit the 10% deposit as liquidated damages. If a purchaser fails to complete the purchase, the Director may accept the next highest bid subject to the same conditions. If the Director rejects all proposals or bids, the Director may repeat the sealed bid auction or public auction, or may use an alternative sale process considered acceptable by OU. The purchaser must pay all costs associated with the purchase, closing, and conveyance, except OU is responsible for the costs attributed to the marketing of a secondary sale.

The real estate must be sold as an entire tract and not in parcels. The net proceeds of the sale must be paid to OU and deposited into the Ohio University Endowment Fund.

University of Cincinnati property to Children's Hospital Medical Center (Section 19)

The bill authorizes the conveyance of real estate in Hamilton County to Children's Hospital Medical Center through a real estate purchase agreement.

Children's must pay the costs of the purchase, closing, and conveyance. If Children's does not complete the purchase, the Director of Administrative Services may use a method of sale deemed reasonable by the University of Cincinnati's (UC's) Board of Trustees to convey the real estate to an alternate grantee. UC and the alternate grantee must pay the costs of the purchase, closing, and conveyance as set forth in a real estate purchase agreement. The real estate must be conveyed as an entire tract and not in parcels. The net proceeds from the sale must be deposited into university accounts for purposes to be determined by UC's Board of Trustees.

University of Cincinnati property to UC Health LLC (Section 20)

The bill authorizes the conveyance of real estate in Hamilton County to UC Health LLC (UC Health) through a real estate purchase agreement. UC Health must pay the costs of the purchase, closing, and conveyance. If Children's does not complete the purchase, the Director of Administrative Services may use a method of sale deemed reasonable by UC's Board of Trustees to convey the real estate to an alternate grantee. UC and the alternate grantee must pay the costs of the purchase, closing, and conveyance as set forth in a real estate purchase agreement. The real estate must be conveyed as an entire tract and not in parcels. The net proceeds from the sale must be deposited into university accounts for purposes to be determined by UC's Board of Trustees.

Youngstown State University property to Charles Staples and Margaret Staples (Section 21)

The Director of Administrative Services and Charles Staples and Margaret Staples (the Staples) must execute a real estate purchase agreement that sets forth the terms and conditions of a land exchange; as consideration for receiving the state's property, the Staples must convey to the state a lot specified under the bill. If the Staples do not complete the purchase, the Director of Administrative Services may use a method of sale deemed reasonable by Youngstown State University's (YSU's) President to convey the state's real estate to an alternate grantee. The Staples or the alternate grantee must pay all costs of the purchase, closing, and conveyance. The state's real estate may be conveyed as an entire tract or in multiple parcels.
