SUMMARY

- Enacts the Business Fairness Act, allowing businesses required to limit or cease operations by orders, rules, or regulations issued due to dangerous disease to remain open so long as they observe the same safety requirements imposed on businesses that were not required to limit or cease operations.
- Declares an emergency.

DETAILED ANALYSIS

The Business Fairness Act

Operation

The bill enacts the Business Fairness Act. The act grants businesses that have been required to limit or cease operations by certain orders, rules, or regulations, issued to curtail the spread of disease, the right to continue operations under one condition. They must comply with the same safety precautions that the order, rule, or regulation imposes on businesses that are not required to limit or cease operations.<sup>1</sup>

Orders affected

The bill applies to the following orders, rules, and regulations:

- Rules adopted by the Department of Health and orders adopted by the Director of Health to prevent a threat to the public caused by a pandemic, epidemic, or bioterrorism event.

- A violation of such an order is a second degree misdemeanor, punishable by up to 90 days in jail and a $750 fine.<sup>2</sup>
- Orders or regulations of the board of health of a city or a general health district issued due to epidemic, threatened epidemic, or the unusual prevalence of a dangerous communicable disease.
  - A violation of such an order is a minor misdemeanor, punishable by a fine, up to $150, on a first offense and a fourth degree misdemeanor, punishable by a fine, up to $250, and up to 30 days in jail on a subsequent offense.<sup>3</sup>
- Emergency orders or regulations of the board of health of a city or general health district issued in the case of an epidemic of contagious or infectious disease.
  - These order are enforceable by court ordered injunctions, and a violation is punishable by a fine, up to $100, and up to 90 days in jail, though no jail term is permitted for a first offense.<sup>4</sup>
