BILL SUMMARY

- Abolishes the Government Contracting Advisory Council.

CONTENT AND OPERATION

Government Contracting Advisory Council

The bill abolishes the Government Contracting Advisory Council, which reviews rules the Attorney General and the Auditor of State adopt with respect to persons who receive $25,000 or more in a lump sum, or $75,000 or more over the course of a year, from a governmental entity for the provision of services benefiting individuals or the public (subject to a number of exemptions), and makes recommendations regarding their adoption, amendment, or repeal. The Council is required to meet at least once every two years.

The Council consists of the following members or their designees: the Attorney General; the Auditor of State; the Director of Administrative Services; the Director of Aging; the Medicaid Director; the Director of Budget and Management; the Director of Development Services; the Director of Job and Family Services; the Director of Mental Health and Addiction Services; the Director of Developmental Disabilities; the Director of Rehabilitation and Correction; the Administrator of Workers' Compensation; the Executive Director of the County Commissioners' Association of Ohio; the President of the Ohio Grantmakers Forum; the President of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce; the President of the Ohio State Bar Association; the President of the Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants; the Executive Director of the Ohio Association of Nonprofit Organizations; the President of the Ohio United Way; one additional member appointed by the Attorney General; and one additional member appointed by the Auditor of State.

The Attorney General provides necessary staff, facilities, supplies, and services to the Council.¹
