CONTENT AND OPERATION

Government Contracting Advisory Council

The bill abolishes the Government Contracting Advisory Council, which reviews rules the Attorney General and the Auditor of State adopt with respect to persons who receive $25,000 or more in a lump sum, or $75,000 or more over the course of a year, from a governmental entity for the provision of services benefiting individuals or the public (subject to a number of exemptions), and makes recommendations regarding their adoption, amendment, or repeal. The Council is required to meet at least once every two years.

The Council consists of the following members or their designees: the Attorney General; the Auditor of State; the Director of Administrative Services; the Director of Aging; the Medicaid Director; the Director of Budget and Management; the Director of Development Services; the Director of Job and Family Services; the Director of Mental
